

HIGHER LEVEL TEACHING ASSISTANT (HLTA) STATUS

3-5 months

HLTA Status

Online Preparation

SEND Specialism Option

Twilight Preparation Available

A nationally recognised route for experienced Teaching Assistants who are ready to take on greater responsibility in the classroom. HLTA Status assesses and verifies your ability to contribute to planning, lead and advance learning for individuals, groups and whole classes and to support pupil progress, while working closely with teachers to raise standards.

About our Programme

What will you learn?

- The 33 HLTA Standards and what good practice looks like in everyday school settings
- How to evidence the Standards through HLTA written tasks and a Documentary Evidence File
- How to prepare for the assessment interview with yourself and school colleagues
- A developing ability to be a reflective practitioner and to identify aspects of practice for continued development

How is it delivered?

- Live online preparation sessions
- Independent study to complete tasks and build your evidence file
- Final remote assessment including interview with an experienced and expert assessor

Who will I be helping?

- All pupils you work with to, lead and support progress and to fulfill their potential
- Individuals, small groups and whole classes, to advance their learning and support need
- School colleagues: Teachers, support staff, SENCO and others

Requirements:

- ✓ Some experience of leading whole-class learning without a teacher present (at least twice)
- ✓ A Level 2 qualification in English and maths (e.g., GCSE grade C/4 or above) (or employer exemption)
- ✓ Support from their headteacher, confirming suitability for HLTA Status

What does HLTA prepare you for?

Develop the skills, confidence and evidence needed to meet the national HLTA standards and take on greater responsibility in school.

Leading learning

Lead whole-class learning confidently when needed, including covering planned absences. Plan and deliver purposeful activities that keep learning on track.

Supporting Pupils

Support pupils to make progress through targeted group and one-to-one work. Use strategies that build understanding, confidence and independence.

Professional Practice

Meet the national HLTA standards with a clear set of written tasks and an evidence file. Prepare for a remote assessment through professional discussion and interviews.
